Fisheries (Notification of Mātaitai Reserve and Tāngata Tiaki/Kaitiaki) Notice 2000 (No. F 168)

Pursuant to Regulation 22 of the Fisheries (South Island Customary Fishing) Regulations 1999, the chief executive of the Ministry of Fisheries hereby gives the following notice.

Notice

1. Title and commencement— (1) This notice may be cited as the Fisheries (Notification of Mātaitai Reserve and Tāngata Tiaki/Kaitiaki) Notice 2000.
(2) This notice shall come into effect on 15 December 2000.

2. Interpretation—In this notice:
(a) The term "mātaitai reserve" has the same meaning as defined in the Fisheries (South Island Customary Fishing) Regulations 1999.
(b) Any reference to "Tāngata Tiaki/Kaitiaki" means any person or persons appointed as Tāngata Tiaki/Kaitiaki for the mātaitai reserve under the Fisheries (South Island Customary Fishing) Regulations 1999.
(c) Any reference to area/rohe moana means the area encompassing those waters in Koukourārata Harbour that lie south of a straight line drawn from Te Piaka/Adderley Head (at approximately 43°36.24' S and approximately 172°49.54' E) to Akeake/Baleine Point (at approximately 43°36.21'S and approximately 172°51.19' E)."

History
Clause 2(c) was amended by omitting paragraph (c) and substituting a new paragraph (c) on 29 June 2001 by clause 3 of the Fisheries (Declaration and Notification of Mātaitai Reserve) Amendment Notice (F182).

3. Notification of a mātaitai reserve— The Minister of Fisheries declared the area/rohe moana at Koukourārata (Port Levy), Banks Peninsula, a mātaitai reserve by notice in the New Zealand Gazette dated 14 December 2000.

4. Appointment of Tāngata Tiaki/Kaitiaki— The Minister of Fisheries in an instrument dated 12 December 2000 appointed Joe Sour and Tim Manawatu as Tāngata Tiaki/Kaitiaki for managing customary food gathering for the area/rohe moana.
The appointment is for a term of 5 years commencing the day that this notice comes into effect.

Dated at Wellington this 13th day of December 2000.
JOHN ANNALA, Acting under delegated authority from the Chief Executive, Ministry of Fisheries.
